The diverse and innovative pedagogy that includes classroom lectures, video presentations, seminars, group work, case studies, role plays, live projects, market surveys, field and industry visits equip the students with management theories and their practical applications.

The summer internship component of our three programs is a critical part where in students are exposed to the real life business situations in our partner organizations for a period of 12 weeks during the intervening period of first year and the second year (April-June 2026).

It gives me immense pleasure in inviting our esteemed recruiters and industry partners to join our efforts in building professional skills among our young students of Agribusiness & Plantation Management (ABPM); Food Processing & Business Management (FPBM); and Agricultural Export & Business Management (AEBM) by providing summer internships opportunities to the batch of 2025-27 students.

Dr. S Senthil Vinayagam

The Indian Institute of Plantation Management, Bengaluru is the only management institution within the plantation management and associated agribusiness sector in the country. The institute offers three cutting-edge management programs in Agribusiness & Plantation Management (ABPM); Food Processing & Business Management (FPBM); and Agricultural Export & Business Management (AEBM) to develop professional managers for an ever evolving and dynamic plantations and associated agribusiness sector for both national and global markets.

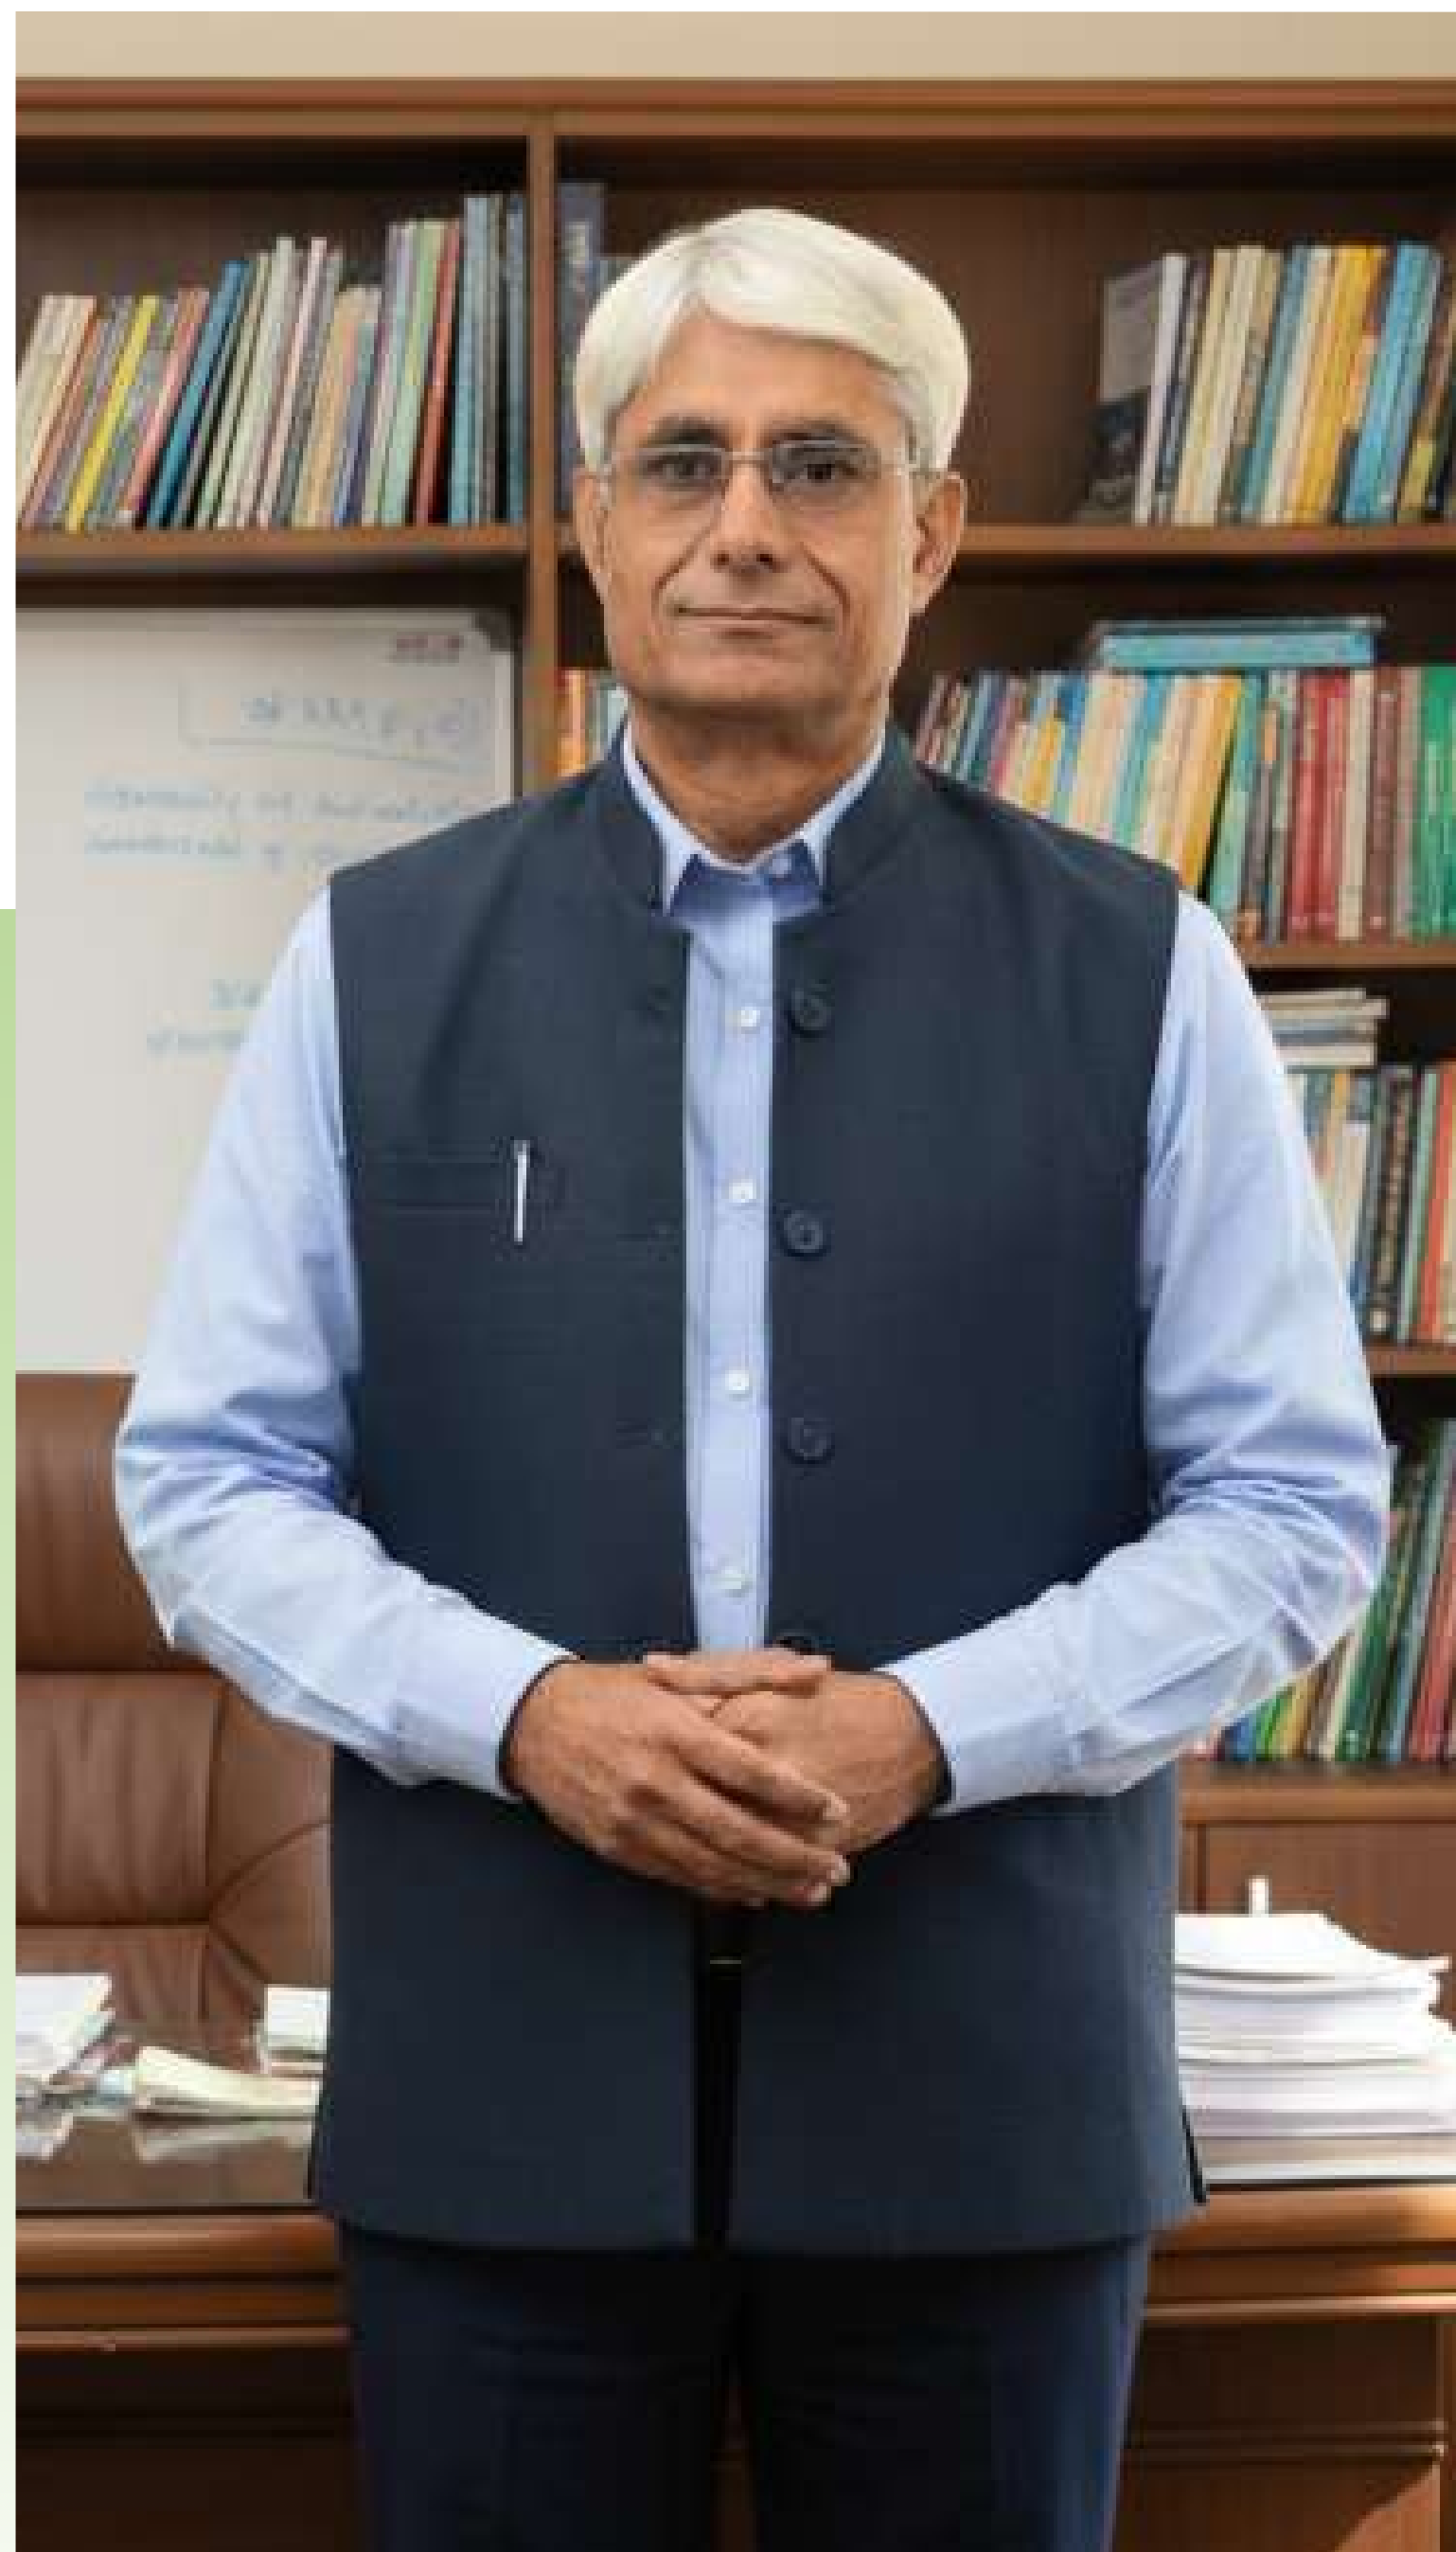

These programs are uniquely designed with inputs from the industry and delivered by multi-disciplinary faculty with diverse pedagogy tools that build on sound theoretical frameworks, integrated with application of management concepts and immersed with practice through case studies, business leader talks, and industry exposure. Summer Internship or Corporate Training Segment is an important component in our programs curriculum through which the young students get opportunity for hands-on experience of the corporate functions, application of concepts in real business situations & sharpen their professional skills.

I invite our recruiters and industry partners to provide our young PGDM students of 2025-27 batch of 58 girls and 90 boys internship opportunities in their business operations and help them develop skills to be able to become decision makers on completion of their respective programs. To help you understand the batch diversity, a summary of students' profile of the three programs is presented in this Summer Internship brochure.

I take this opportunity to invite you to join in our campus summer internship drive which is open from October to April 2026 with our primary campus selection week scheduled during November 27-30, 2025.

Adhering to the motto, "It is the Knowledge that Liberates", IIPM Bengaluru strives to provide our students an environment filled with academic rigour and learning so that they emerge as business leaders, prepared to effectively tackle the challenges of the agribusiness sector.

Prof. Manmohan Yadav

About IIPM

IIPM Bengaluru was established in November 1993 by the Ministry of Commerce & Industry (MoC&I), Government of India, as an autonomous educational institute of higher learning. During the initial years, the institute closely worked with the plantation industry and Commodity Boards of India (CBs) for the development of the Agri-plantation sector. IIPM conducted industry need-based short-duration capacity building and training programs for the stakeholders of the Agri-plantation sector that included planters, corporate managers, executive members of planter associations, small and medium entrepreneurs, officials, and scientists of the CBs, Ministries of Government of India, and officials of the State Government departments.

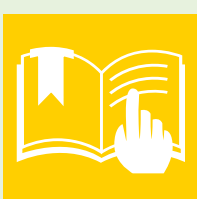

Indian Institute of Plantation Management Bengaluru (IIPMB) is an exclusive sectoral institute with the capability and expertise to contribute to the Agri, Plantation, Horticulture, and Allied sectors from various dimensions—education, export facilitation, capacity building and training, policy research, research and development, and others to meet the demand of the sector.

IIPMB aims to strengthen connections with associated stakeholders including the Agri-plantation Industry, Small, Medium, and Marginal Planters, Commodity Boards of India, other Agencies, and the Academia.

To meet the demand for customized programs in the agri-plantation sector, IIPM launched a 15-month PG program in Agribusiness & Plantation Management in 2001–02, later upgraded to a 24-month AICTE-approved PGDM in Agribusiness & Plantation Management (PGDM-ABPM). Since then, it has added two more PGDM programs—Food Processing & Business Management (PGDM-FPBM) and Agricultural Exports and Business Management (PGDM-AEBM)—along with a Fellow Program in Management (FPM) to nurture ethical researchers in agribusiness, plantation, food, & allied fields.
